About Montpelier

Voted one of USA Today's 10 Best Towns in the Northeast for 2024!

Montpelier provides small town charm with big city flavor. With a population of 8,000, we are America's smallest Capital City. Exquisite historic buildings are home to Vermont's state government, shopping, commerce and world-class dining and arts. Outstanding outdoor recreation is within minutes of downtown. Montpelier's crown jewel is the impeccably restored State House - one of the oldest and best preserved in the country. Linger at independently-owned shops offering books, records, clothing, fine crafts and pastries, or dine in one of the many farm-to-table restaurants, craft beer bars, and cafes.

About Waterbury

With a population of less than 2000, Waterbury is home to Ben & Jerry's, Cold Hollow Cider Mill, Prohibition Pig, and other favorites for locals and visitors alike. Both in the historic downtown and beyond, there are many other great independent shops, restaurants, and artist studios. With award-winning farm-to-table dining, local craft breweries, and eclectic stores, there is something in Waterbury for everyone to enjoy!

Waterbury is a place of dynamic experiences with easy access from Stowe, Montpelier, Burlington, and the Mad River Valley. Its location along the eastern fold of the Green Mountains, the scenic Green Mountain Byway, Mad River Byway, and Interstate 89 converge in Waterbury makes it an ideal hub for exploration. With a natural environment that is an ever-changing backdrop for outdoor activities, including several state parks with outstanding opportunities for hiking and paddling, Waterbury is also one of the best bike towns in Vermont - with acclaimed trail networks and après activities.
